Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

I desire to be hands-on the job, increase my knowledge on the matter(s) and benefit my career in a long run, greatly. Further, I truly believe that those who serve or have learned how to serve, in a long run, are happier individuals.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

Financial Commission: The city's budget process should be similar to a household budget: do not spend more than what you earn. With that in mind, the financial process, policy and recommendations for future funding strategies should be accomplished harmoniously. If we continually abide within those financial principles, the city should benefit greatly from managing spending targets and local tax rates, appropriately. Public Works, Environment and Transportation Commission: This Commission is vital to the City of Roseville. Currently, I believe it is working very nicely. It helps maintain, restore and build new parks and playgrounds so desirable for many.

Civic and Volunteer Activities

I volunteer for the City of Roseville for the Natural Resources Program. Lately, I have been off a bit due to my wife and I's work schedule. Other than that, I am in.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission? Having lived within the Roseville community for a good few years now I think it's about time I got more involved and gave back a bit - as my skill sets allow. Being involved to a limited extent with some recent resident interactions with the Council (AKA the whole "armory on McCarrons" discussion) it became apparent to me that ensuring sound and accurate evaluation and communication of appropriate financial information to and from residents was really important to the community overall.

What is your view of the role of this Commission? Assist in citizen communications and participation through the provision of expertise in financial management and controls. Provide advice, counsel and guidance to the City Council regarding matters financial, including but not limited to the funding of activities and programs, capital investments within the remit of the city's responsibility and operational budgets & expenditures. Assess and review actual versus planned revenue and expenditure levels to help ensure effectiveness and efficiency. Ensure that the appropriate level of governance and controls are implemented and managed to within the remit of the Finance Commission.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

I want to serve on this commission in large part because of my working experience in the issue areas of taxes, local government, and budget processes. I love working with budgets, assisting in procuring and disseminating budget recommendations and becoming actively involved in my city's finances. I believe it is important to have people on the Finance Commission who fight for a vibrant, growing City of Roseville. I am intimately familiar with various tax structures in the State of Minnesota including income, sales, property, gas, tax levies and through my time working with Rep. Alice Hausman, I am intimately familiar with the state's capital bonding process with I feel it is necessary the city work on getting bonding projects through the Legislature. I am able to assist in that process as well as helping in the creation of a strategic goals-oriented economic plan for the City of Roseville. I want to become involved in my new home as I was in my previous home of Forest Lake and see the importance of having engaged, informed citizens assisting in the governance and budgeting of the city.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

I view this role as not only the overseer of the city's financial situation, but I see this commission as a great way to inform the Council and other interested parties and to come up with recommendations on ways to better the city's budget overall. It, too, is imperative a city has and disseminates to residents both short and long-term strategic planning goals and ensure those goals are met through active implementation and ensure those goals are met by accountability measures. It is important members of the Commission recognize the importance of transparency of the budgeting process, as the city's budget affects all residents. I also feel it is important to increase the amount of citizens coming to finance commission meetings and being more engaged in the process of the budget.

Is there additional information you would like the City Council to consider regarding your application? I am a new resident of Roseville, but my past experience and desire to serve my new community drives me to apply for this very important position. I am very knowledgeable about the budgeting process, taxes, local government, and I believe in the importance of local residents with knowledge and drive for being involved in local government are important facets for a city to grow.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

I have long been interested in studying the decision making ability of policy makers, and what their economic impacts are. I believe that finance is perhaps the most important factor that needs to be taken into account when deciding whether or not to enact a certain policy; it needs to get paid for. I am transferring in the fall of 2017 to Metropolitan State University to study Economics and Political Science, and I am taking economics courses at Anoka Ramsey Community College this spring. I believe service on this committee and my education would go hand in hand, helping me to be successful at both. I also am a firm believer in human rights. I still see today highly unethical treatment of blacks, LGBTQ, and women. This issue will likely never go away but I have long been aware of it and wanted to do something about it.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

I believe managing city finance is very important. Using our general reserve fund economically should be one of the first priorities of our city government. It is the role of this committee to ensure that we are not spending needlessly, identifying ways to save money wherever possible.

Civic and Volunteer Activities

I did Boy Scouts as a middle school and high school student. I coach Debate at Roseville Area High School. I volunteer twice a week at People Serving People, a homeless shelter for families.

Work Experience

I worked at JCP for around 5 months in 2015. I currently coach Debate at RAHS, a job I am very passionate about, but the debate season unfortunately will be ending in January.

Education

I graduated high school. I spent one semester at the University of Minnesota - Morris, where I took mostly courses in political science. I spent one semester at Dakota County Technical College, where I took mostly science courses.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

I served on the Ethics commission for one term starting 2013 and it was a wonderful experience. I would like to get involved again with a commission that meets more often and has a greater impact on my community. In addition, I think it is our duty as citizens to get involved and stay involved, and serving on a commission is a great way to do so.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

To advise the city council on issues pertaining to human rights in the city of Roseville. That's the basic role, anyway, but I think there is a great symbolic role to the community. If the commission is active and visible, citizens of our city who identify with a group that has suffered abuses in the past might see Roseville as a more welcoming place to stay - or residents outside Roseville might see it as a great place to move.

Civic and Volunteer Activities

On top of the ethics commission, I volunteered to help keep Roseville events zero waste on several occasions, and served on a sub-committee of the board for the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation, MN & Dakotas chapter (also based in Roseville).

Is there additional information you would like the City Council to consider regarding your application?

I look forward to meeting with the City Council to discuss my application in more detail! Also, while I am applying for the Human Rights commission, I am also interested in the Parks & Rec commission, but didn't check its box because I feel I may be lacking in civic planning related experience. I am happy to chat, even in general, about possibilities with regard to that commission too. Thanks for your time!

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

Over the years I've learned that the best way to get to know your community is through service. As a recent Roseville resident, I'm looking to meet my neighbors and become an active, invested member of this great community. Through my work with the Minnesota Association for Volunteer Administration I see firsthand the power of volunteerism to strengthen community relationships and implement social change. Serving as a member of the Roseville Human Rights Commission would unite my twin passions for social justice and civic engagement while providing me with the opportunity to learn from my fellow citizens and support positive change in the city.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

I see the Human Rights Commission as a vehicle for ensuring that the Roseville community is a welcoming and inclusive community for ALL of its residents. Through its work, the Commission harnesses the voices of residents to identify and amplify the diversity and human rights issues that matter to them, it educates fellow residents and city officials about these topics, celebrates the human rights work of residents and local organizations, and engages area youth in critical thinking and conversation around civil rights through its annual essay contest. I would be honored to be an active part of this work for Roseville.

Civic and Volunteer Activities

I volunteer weekly as a literacy tutor for kindergartners at Community of Peace Academy on the east side of St. Paul.

Work Experience

I am the Services and Operations Manager for the Minnesota Association for Volunteer Administration (MAVA). In this role I oversee office operations and communications, coordinate programming, and manage an AmeriCorps VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America) cohort. Prior to joining MAVA, I managed a statewide leadership training program for community and technical college students and spent three years in the national service field, serving in the AmeriCorps VISTA program in St. Paul and working in the community relations office for the Corporation for National and Community Service in Iowa.

Education	I received a Bachelor of Arts in Creative Writing from Beloit College in 2009.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission? I recently moved to the area from Northeast Minneapolis, where I lived for 15 years, to accommodate my growing family and to set residence in a city close to the urban center where we can raise our kids. I was an active member of the community in the Audubon Neighborhood, serving on the board of the neighborhood association for a number of years as well as engaging in planning of community events and participating in issue-oriented campaigns for many candidates and organizations, as well as serving as an employee for local, statewide and national political campaigns. I am a strong supporter and defender of social and economic justice, and have many years of experience working with underrepresented groups in trying to get them engaged and fairly represented in the broader community at large. I am a strong believer in volunteering time to serve your community in order to make it feel like home for everyone.

What is your view of the role of this Commission? I am eager to get back into volunteering my time and skills for a worthy cause, and this opportunity presented itself as a good fit for me. I am looking forward to working with a system of best practices and researching methods and outcomes in order to maintain a system of fairness and equality for all underrepresented communities who call Roseville home. I would like to use what skills I have (in addition to learning from others) in advocating, researching, planning and celebrating the diverse threads making up the fabric of this vibrant community, which I was so pleasantly surprised was more diverse than I had previously thought when living in Minneapolis.

Civic and Volunteer Activities Former Board Member (one year as finance chair/treasurer) for Audubon Neighborhood Association Former Board Member for Gift of Adoption (providing grants to lower-income families in need of assistance to complete adoption process); chaired the annual Golf for the Gift fundraiser and silent auction Former member of various local groups and task forces working with issues concerning local parks, community centers and neighborhood events Volunteer for dozens of political and issue campaigns promoting candidates and issues concerning social and economic justice and diversity in our local communities

Work Experience The past 15 years in a nutshell: 2002-2005: Executive Assistant, Minnesota Council on Foundations 2005: Regional Field Organizer, RT Rybak for Minneapolis 2005-2006: Event Manager and Scheduler, Ford Bell for US Senate 2006: Event Manager and Scheduler, Keith Ellison for Congress 2007-2009: Development Associate, Planned Parenthood of MN, ND, SD (principally worked on capital campaign to raise funds for new building) 2009-2010: Senior Staffer/Scheduler,

Minnesotans for Matt (Entenza) 2011-2012: GAP YEARS - took time off to start family and do freelance work in event planning 2013-2015: Case Manager, Moxie Inc. (family therapists and psychologists) 2015-present: Office Manager, Steven B. Schmidt Mediation, LLC (mediation & arbitration in the area of family law)

Education High School: Saint Paul Academy & Summit School, graduated 1994
College: BA in Art History and Theater & Drama, University of Wisconsin - Madison, graduated 1999

Is there additional information you would like the City Council to consider regarding your application? In summary, I hope to be able to become engaged within my (relatively new) community and lending what skills and expertise I have in helping Roseville to maintain a vibrant and diverse presence. Thank you for your consideration, and please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any additional questions.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

I feel called to this role because of my deep commitment to making sure all people feel valued, appreciated, dignified, and treated with respect. I believe human rights are at the core of what makes a community great. It is my hope to live in a community where all people, of all different backgrounds are not only treated with the highest level of human rights, but that the diversity of our community is celebrated. When my husband and I chose to move back to Roseville from Como Park a year and a half ago, we were both excited, but also a little sad. We knew from our past time living here that we loved living in Roseville, but we were a little sad to be leaving a community where we felt our children and ourselves were a part of an incredibly diverse neighborhood. We loved that when we looked around our neighborhood we saw people of all different backgrounds, and we celebrated that diversity. We were truly elated when we found our new home in Roseville, and saw that we really hadn't given anything up from our prior community, but rather had gained a whole new set of friends and community members here. Our new home is surrounded by diversity, and it is my hope to more involved in making sure our neighbors and community as a whole continues to grow in diversity, challenge ourselves to be more inclusive, to learn from each other, and to uphold the highest standards of human rights.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

I feel that the role of this commission is to offer leadership and guidance in the community to make sure that all people living here are ensured the highest level of equality and human rights. It's role is to ask tough questions, listen to what community members are saying, learn from our neighbors, and offer guidance to make sure everyone's rights are protected, and that Roseville is a safe, inclusive community for all who live here.

Civic and Volunteer Activities

In all honesty, I have not been very involved in our Roseville community since we moved back. My son was born a year and a half ago, and with a 4 year old as well, my time had been mostly consumed. In my past I participated in community activities such as building rain gardens, being a demonstration house for environmental clean up to keep runoff water from having harmful waste, as well as being an active participant in my church community, and assisting older community members with errands and chores. After living here for a year and a half, I have realized how much I miss being active in the community, and this called to me.

Work Experience

I have been a social worker in the community for a little over a decade. I have worked primarily with older adults and family caregivers in various roles. I started my career working as the Executive/Program Director for the Como Park/Falcon Heights Living at Home/Block Nurse program. This program allowed me the opportunity to see community in action working to support older adult neighbors. Our primary goal was to help older adults live in the community safely and with dignity for as long as possible. We arranged volunteer services such as transportation to medical appointments, medical advocacy, friendly visiting, home care services, and more. From there, I moved on to work for the Amherst H. Wilder foundation, first as their Health and Wellness Coordinator in their Aging Services, as well as a Home Care Social Worker, and eventually moved on to work in their caregiver services program. I currently work for Lyngblomsten and have been there for just under 4 years. I have worked as the manager of The Gathering Program, which is a day away program for people with early to mid-stage memory loss, and now in addition to that I am a site coordinator for 2nd Half with Lyngblomsten.

Education

I grew up in the Mahtomedi area, and attended St. Jude of the Lake Catholic School K-8 and Mahtomedi High School. I attended the College of Saint Benedict and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in social work. I also attended the University of MN - Duluth graduate school for a Master's Degree in Social Work.

Is there additional information you would like the City Council to consider regarding your application?

I am excited about this opportunity. I love our community, and I would be honored to be involved in continuing to make it great for all who live here.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

I have lived in Roseville my entire life. I attended Central Park Elementary School, Roseville Area Middle and High Schools. Immediately after completing my Bachelor's Degree in Law & Society at American University in Washington, D.C, I came home to take a job with the Minnesota Democratic Farmer Labor (DFL) Party, where I currently serve as the Party Affairs Director. As a young woman of color, I am no stranger to racism and sexism, but fortunately, I was welcomed and supported by so many amazing teachers, coaches, administrators and friends throughout my time in the Roseville Area Public Schools District. As a member of this Commission, I would hope to learn more about the ways in which we are celebrating Roseville's diversity and making our communities more inclusive, as well as the many ways in which we can improve. I actually remember writing an essay about racial inequities in the Twin Cities for the Human Rights Commission Contest in 8th grade. As a member of this commission, I would look forward to sponsoring this contest and participating in many other activities to give back to my community.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

Whether it is advising the City Council or putting forth their own proposals, members of the Human Rights Commission serve as advocates for the diverse residents of Roseville. This Commission can be evaluating whether or not every member of our community feels safe no matter their race, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, ability, religion, etc. In addition, the Commission can be continuously coming up with ways to make our community more inclusive and holding those in positions of power accountable to these standards.

Civic and Volunteer Activities

I am a member of the Women Winning LAUNCH Committee. Women Winning is a multi-partisan organization that endorses pro-choice female candidates throughout the state of Minnesota. This year, I served as a co-chair for Women Winning's annual Wine, Chocolate & Choice event and was responsible for helping Women Winning meet a $25,000 fundraising goal through ticket purchases and sponsorships. I am a New Leaders Council - Twin Cities Fellow. New Leaders Council is a organization working to build a network of progressive young professionals across the county by providing them with leadership and entrepreneurship training.

During this fellowship, I must develop a capstone that incorporates material from the trainings I receive on entrepreneurship, communications, fundraising, and diversity and inclusion by experts in these fields.

Work Experience	I am the Party Affairs Director at Minnesota Democratic Farmer Labor (DFL) Party. As Party Affairs Director, I work with our local party activists and volunteers across the state of Minnesota. I am also responsible for planning all the logistics for DFL State Central Committee Meetings, Business Conferences and State Conventions.

Is there additional information you would like the City Council to consider regarding your application?	I would bring a unique, and much needed perspective, to this Commission as a young woman of color and an alumna of Roseville Area Public Schools. I have fundraising, database management and event planning skills, and a vast network. There are very few 21 years olds in director positions. I got where I am today because of my hard work, ambition and passion. I would bring the same level of commitment and expertise that I do with any job to this Commission.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

I would like to serve on this commission because I believe my background as an immigrant and a person of color will provide a different perspective to the subject of human rights in a rapidly changing city of Roseville demographically. I grew up in a country that had a president for 17 years in a dictatorship. As a result, I've learned to pay attention to human rights violation. No right is a given under dictatorships and We the People have to stay vigilant to have our local government reflect what our values and wishes are. I live in Roseville. I love Roseville. I envision to live in Roseville for as long as possible. My goal is to make Roseville a city where all feel welcome and safe.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

In my view, the HRC's main role is to protect the rights of every single resident of Roseville regardless of their race, ethnic backgrounds, gender, sexual orientation and religious background.

Civic and Volunteer Activities

-In the summer of 2016, I was an assistant coach for soccer for the Roseville Park and Recreation. I plan to continue being involved in this activity. -I have been involved in conversations around race relation in the city. I attended all 3 movie sessions organized by Do Good Roseville (Race, Power of an Illusion) and had consistently provided my input from the prospective of the immigrant of African descent. More recently, I was part of the panel discussion "Ask a Black Man" organized by Do Good Roseville and hosted by Nyia Harris. We plan to continue this discussion as I believe the more conversations we have the better people and the better community we will become. -I also have been actively involved in community conversations around race relation in St. Anthony Village (I have friends living there) speaking at Nativity Church. I'm currently part of the team following the DOJ work with the SAPD after the death of the Mr. Castile. -I have attended some community conversations organized by Imagine Roseville.

Work Experience

-I worked in Benin for 2 years as MD before moving to Minnesota in 2006 after I met my wife, a Minnesota native. - Since moving to MN, I worked in St. Paul as Nursing Assistant at Ramsey County Detox from 2007 through 2009. -I currently provide direct patient care as part of St. Paul Infectious Disease Associates seeing patients at HealthEast and Allina.

Education

-I was born and raised in Benin, West Africa. I went to elementary, primary and secondary schools in Benin from 1983 through 1996. -I then did a year of preparation courses in Biology, Geology and biochemistry in 1996-1997 before going to Medical school/Residency (A combined program) in 1997. I graduated from Med in 2004. -After I moved to MN, I went to English Class at the Global Language Institute in St. Paul. I took a short course at St. Paul College to become a nursing assistant. -From 2007 to 2009, I did some self study with Kaplan Medical to take the USMLE in order to apply for Residency as below. -I then did 3 years of Internal Medicine Residency at the University of MN from 2009 to 2012. This was followed by 2 years of Infectious Disease Fellowship at the University of MN from 2012 to 2014.

Is there additional information you would like the City Council to consider regarding your application?

I came from nothing in life (my parents were farmers in West Africa) to be where I am today partially because of the values my parents instilled in me, the value of hard work, the value of persistence and perseverance, the value of standing up to denounce bullying/oppression of any kind, the value of equality for all and the value of fair treatment. I think this is what human rights are all about. I'm fluent in French (writing, reading and speaking). I'm married with two beautiful children who also call Roseville home.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?	I believe community service and volunteerism can be found at the core of every strong community. I also believe that diversity and inclusion can be a strong approach to creating meaningful dialog that could lead to solutions to many social issues. If the local governing bodies reflect the community in which it serves; the concerns of the community will be well represented. If given the opportunity to serve the community in this capacity. I feel I can add a valuable perspective and meaningful input.
What is your view of the role of this Commission?	My view of this commission is that it provides a platform to advise city officials on human rights and diversity concerns of the community. It also promotes a positive climate in the community as it relates to human rights issues. It also provides an avenue for the community members to have input concerning human rights and diversity concerns.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?	I believe that the future of our society starts with the children. Children who have access to quality forms of physical activity will generally be better citizens in the future. Children need to be entertained as well as educated and stimulated in multiple ways. Parks not only benefit children but people of all ages. They promote community, exercise and nature all in one. I am proud to be a citizen of Roseville because of our parks and recreation options that we have and the high quality equipment and resources that are available.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?	This commission plays an important role in the city. Time and time again in community surveys parks and recreation are in the top 3 priorities of the community. I am also very happy to see the city recognizing the needs of the disabled and including more and more "inclusive" play options for children.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

Since moving to Roseville in 2010, I have come to appreciate the opportunities for citizens to have access to and influence over functions of Roseville in a variety of capacities. I firmly believe that we live in one of the greatest cities and it is because we have genuine opportunities to have a voice, to influence, and to provide input; our voices don't fall on deaf ears. It is easy to recognize that Roseville's city officials have citizen's best interests in mind and that we live in a city with a really good Parks and Recreation department. In my job at Wells Fargo, I am a Relationship Manager for personal trust and investment accounts. This job requires me to manage my day to day work with little supervision, requires me to communicate with clients, attorneys, accountants, and colleagues with an incredible amount of professionalism in a calm, pleasant demeanor. I analyze trust and financial information, interpret complex legal documents, and work with my clients on complex fiduciary and financial matters. I make financial decisions that are in the best interests of my clients and the bank amid an extremely strict corporate regulatory environment and external government regulations. While I work with high net worth families, I also work with families struggling financially. Sometimes my clients are at very difficult life stages, have tremendously challenging family dynamics, have experienced or are experiencing profound tragedies in their lives, or have achieved remarkable successes. My clients are diverse in many ways, but they all require a very high level of service and someone who has an impeccable ability to listen to them no matter what their situation or status is. I am a working mom that is blessed to live on a cozy block with a house that abuts a park; we are active participants in Roseville's Parks and Recreation facilities and programs. The various facilities and programs have allowed us to explore Roseville as a family, be physically active with our kids, have access to affordable opportunities for our kids to learn and play, and meet other parents. We are fortunate to have access to numerous parks and programs in Roseville that every citizen can take advantage of. Most nights you'll find us playing at the park behind our house well past bedtime! Roseville's Parks and Recreation department is a vital asset to the community and the citizens it serves. I would like to be a part of the Commission to provide my input to keep our Parks and Recreation department successful and relevant for citizens of all ages for the years to come. I believe that this particular opportunity to serve has come at a great time where my role as a mom and my work experiences would be well served on the Parks and Recreation Commission. The time is so right, right now, to jump in and participate!

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

The Commission acts as a liaison between citizens and the City Manager, Parks and Recreation Director, and the City Council. The Commission meets to review budgets, facilities, and programs, and ensure that the City's programs and facilities are safe, maintained, financially sound, and meets the needs of citizens. The Commission stays informed and promotes to its citizens what the city has to offer within Parks and Recreation facilities and programs.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission? I would like to serve on the Parks & Recreation Commission for several reasons. First, I love using the parks. I enjoy running, and have explored many of the trails and paths throughout our city since moving to Roseville in 2014. My spouse and I enjoy going for walks around Central Park near our home, or stumbling across community baseball games (in the summer) and hockey games (in the winter). Second, we welcomed a new baby into the family in November 2016, and this renewed a passion for the future of our city and our parks. I grew up on a farm in rural Iowa, and while I can't recreate that for our son, I do want to ensure he has green spaces to be outside and play, to learn about nature (horticulture, water management, etc.), and to meet other children from Roseville. Third, civic and philanthropic engagement is important in our family, and this feels like the right place for me to connect at this time.

What is your view of the role of this Commission? I view the role of the Parks & Recreation Commission to be one of advocacy. Being an advocate for our parks as an individual, and also providing a voice for other residents of Roseville to make their questions / concerns / ideas heard. One particular aspect I am excited about is the opportunity for additional sidewalks throughout our city, as I find it disappointing that some of the major thoroughfares do not have safe spaces for families to walk together. My spouse enjoys golfing, and he is interested in the upcoming renovations at Cedarholm Golf Course. I believe Roseville already offers great programs for all ages, and many ways for people to take ownership of our parks, such as participating playground builds or planting flowers in the spring. Yet, there is always room for growth and improvement.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission? For over two decades my family and I have regularly spent time hiking, biking and recreating in Roseville parks and attending park events. I believe Roseville has a strong and committed focus on its parks and natural areas. This is much of what I believe makes Roseville a wonderful place to live. I hope that my participation on this Commission will strengthen the connections with the wider range of citizens in Roseville and continue the strong tradition of environmental stewardship. My background in environmental science and my career in both environmental protection and in human services has given me a great understanding of the role for natural areas and their place in the betterment of a community as well as larger ecosystems. I believe Roseville's commitment to parks and its natural areas make Roseville a community where people interact with one another and grow to be good stewards of our environment.

What is your view of the role of this Commission? I understand that this commission works to advise and recommend actions for improving and making parks readily available to residents and friends of Roseville. I believe it is important for commission members to follow through on these commitments and attend and participate in meetings and activities as needed. I believe that as Roseville has grown and become home to many new residents, it is important for the parks to be attentive to how to best serve this changing community. This can often mean looking for new ways to communicate with and engage residents. It is important to find ways to make all residents feel welcome in our great park system, while continuing our important tradition of preserving natural environments. Additionally, our natural areas are home to many species of wildlife that must also be welcome in our community. This means being attentive to habitat opportunities for birds and other wildlife. We are fortunate to have extensive and varied ecosystems within our parks. Our residents and visitors can enjoy observing these many plants and animals while being in a first tier suburb of the Twin Cities.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

I would like to become involved in my community now that I am 1 year away from retiring from the University of Minnesota as a department administrator in the department of Integrative Biology & Physiology (<http://www.physiology.umn.edu>). I have never served on a commission before, but in my current job I deal with a range of issues from HR/personnel, teaching, research, EOE, budgets, faculty support, event planning and grants management. I also served as a Civil Service representative to the UMN Senate in 2007-2008.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

It reviews and monitors Civil Service employment practices for the department to make sure they are fair and reasonable and align with state statutes.

Civic and Volunteer Activities

My volunteer activities have included mainly church activities at Roseville Lutheran church. I sang with the Minnesota Chorale for 5 years.

Work Experience

Education

Ph.D. in Literature and Critical Thought from Northwestern University, Evanston, IL 1992 K-12 Principal License, UMN, 2005.

Is there additional information you would like the City Council to consider regarding your application?

I think I would be fair and impartial and follow the Civil Service Rules when reviewing employment practices. I support the police force and am aware of community issues in Roseville following the Castillo event. I believe that we need to support our law enforcement community and equip them to better do their jobs. However, I also think we need to try to find ways to help reduce the climate of fear on both sides of the aisle.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

My wife and I purchased our first home in Roseville in 2015 and I am excited about the opportunity to be involved in the community and take an active role in helping make Roseville an even better place to live.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

For the Planning Commission, I view the role as an opportunity to provide critical review and scrutiny regarding development and projects throughout the community as well as serve a liaison between citizens, staff, and the Mayor/City Council. Most importantly, I believe the role of the members of any commission is to be engaged and active in the community to provide insight and constructive input to better any development or project that comes before them. For the Parks & Recreation, I view the role as an opportunity to provide input into the process of building and maintaining the highest level of community parks and resources. The Commission's purview encompasses a wide variety of projects and events that require the commissioners' close attention and input to continually improve.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission?

I am interested in serving on the Commission because I am a strong believer in Civic Engagement and believe that I have a lot to offer. As a graduate of the University of Minnesota Law School and Humphrey School, I have been educated in both the law and public policy. Further, as a lawyer, a woman of color, and a mother, I offer a diverse range of perspectives and life experiences that can help the Commission work through its challenges.

What is your view of the role of this Commission?

In my opinion, the role of the Commission is to serve the community. Specifically, to balance the public good with each individual and family's private rights. As to the planning board, I believe that it is tasked with both policy making and some regulation. To achieve these goals, the Commission should be as informed and as inclusive as possible, seeking broad public involvement, and and keeping the public informed. In any regulatory matters, the Commission must always be fair and unprejudiced.

Civic and Volunteer Activities

I am currently a Hennepin County Guardian Ad Litem, a volunteer at my son's daycare, and a member of several area bar organizations.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission? Roseville has been a great place for me to live and work. I have great respect for the importance of good city planning and feel that Roseville has been the beneficiary of good planning. I believe in community service and I currently have time and energy available to devote to Planning Commission work.

What is your view of the role of this Commission? The Planning Commission helps establish a vision defining what it takes to be a great community and reviews development proposals to assure conformance with that vision. The vision is defined in a comprehensive plan for the city. The Planning Commission works with the professional planning staff and the City Council to build the comprehensive plan. The plan defines goals for creating a city that provides places for its citizens to live and work in a welcoming and supportive environment. The plan identifies development goals for housing, commercial/industrial spaces, parks, schools, effective transportation, and other uses. The Planning Commission reviews development proposals to make sure the proposed development conforms to the goals in the comprehensive plan and adheres to the zoning code. The Planning Commission makes recommendations to the City Council which takes final action on the proposals.

Why do you want to serve on this Commission? As a new homeowner in Roseville, I am eager to serve my community and become involved in the issues that affect this city. I am very proud to now call Roseville my home and believe that I can lend a unique perspective to the Commissions' deliberations and discussions. My wife and I were drawn to Roseville because of its reputation as an open and welcome community whose government provided its residents high-quality services and was responsive to the needs of its citizens. As a young professional, who intends to remain in Roseville for a long, I have a strong interest in ensuring the continued success of this city. I would devote myself whole-heartedly to a role on either Commission and would be excited to serve my community.

What is your view of the role of this Commission? I believe members of the citizen advisory commissions should strive to accomplish two goals while serving on a commission. First, I believe that commission members should always be listening to their neighbors and fellow citizens. They should take what they hear and use that information to provide feedback and recommendations to the City Council on its work and should help the City Council identify issues for its consideration. I intend to engage with my neighbors to provide an active voice that reflects the thoughts and concerns of my community. Second, I believe that commission members should seek to educate their neighbors about the important work the City Council and city government performs for its citizens. Commission members should inform their neighbors of the issues under consideration by the City Council, make sure that citizens are aware of opportunities to both take advantage of, and contribute to, in their community, and educate citizens on the important role their city government plays. In this way, city commission members make sure they both represent the voices of their community, while promoting greater involvement in city government. This helps ensure that Roseville remain a well-run, diverse, and strong community.
